A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The melody consists of several measures, each with a corresponding guitar chord indicated above it: D, G, A, and D. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. The score is presented in a simple, black-and-white format.

A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written for a piano, with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple accompaniment. The score is divided into two systems. The first system contains the first two measures of the melody, which end with a double bar line. The second system contains the next three measures, which are marked with the letters G, A, and D above them, indicating the chords to be played. The melody continues through these measures, and the bass staff provides a simple accompaniment.
